

James (Jim) Blackford

Biography

James L. (Jim) Blackford is a long-time resident of Northwest Missouri residing in Maryville, Missouri. He is presently the Senior Vice-President / Wealth Management Development Officer at the Citizens Bank & Trust. Prior to that, he was the co-owner and CFO of LMP Steel & Wire Company in Maryville. He has also worked at Northwest Missouri State University in Business Administration. Jim graduated from Northwest Missouri State with a degree in of B.S. Secondary Education (Accounting Major), in 1972.

Jim is a committed member of the community of Maryville and serves on numerous boards, committees, and task forces. Some of those include:

The Bridge Church, member and board of directors

Maryville Rotary Club, member and past president

Fellowship of Christian Athletes NW Missouri Leadership Board, member

Community Foundation of Northwest Missouri, Inc. Board, member

Jim and his wife Beverly have two sons. Nathan and wife Andrea have two children, Connor and Chloe. Nathan works in Healthcare Administration and resides in Maryville, MO. Tanner is a Pharmacist and resides in Columbia, MO.